

Today's TV Tips

6:30 p.m. (10) The Lucy Show. Solid fun, with the biggest laughs right near the finish. Lucy flips for a handsome Italian millionaire (Cesare Danova) who can't speak English, so she is delighted when banker Mooney (Gale Gordon) volunteers to act as interpreter. Mooney, however, is more intent on grabbing the Italian's business for his bank. The big laughs roll when bumbling Lucy is the cause for a platter of food spilling over her date in an Italian restaurant and she rushes him to the cleaners.

7:30 (3) Wagon Train. "The Ben Engel Story." John Doucette almost always gives a good performance and this show is true to form. Here he plays the title role, a well-meaning man "had" by the conniving youth whose life he saved. Clu Gulager, whose TV claim to fame came in the role of that sneering "good guy,"

(Color) Tomorrow is St. Patrick's Day, so the show naturally presents an Irish segment including Bob McGrath's solo to "Kathleen Mavourneen." There's also a group of local songs and some numbers from Hollywood films.

9 p.m. (12) Sing Along with Mitch. "America Sings."

12 Filmmakers Receive $118,500 for Projects

NEW YORK—Twelve American filmmakers will receive a total of $118,500 from the Ford Foundation in its first move to aid creative artists in motion pictures. The grants range up to $10,000 for a one-year period. They will be used by the recipients either to produce short films or for travel and study.

The awards are part of a long-range plan of the foundation to include motion pictures in its program.

THE UNDERTAKING was described as a "pilot project" by W. McNeil Lowry, director of the foundation's program in humanities and the arts, when it was established last June.

The moviemakers chosen are professionals but their works are generally unknown to viewers of popular film fare.

The 12 winners were selected from 177 nominees considered by a panel of judges. More than 400 letters had been sent to producers, directors, writers, critics and others in the search for the nominees.

The winners and their projects are:

KENNETH ANGER of Los Angeles will make a color film tentatively titled, "Kustom."

Jordan Belson of San Francisco will produce abstract color subject titled "Re-Entry."

James Blue, Portland, Ore., will travel, consult with other directors in the United States, Canada and abroad.

Bruce Connor, Brookline, Mass., one-year fellowship for experimental filmmaking.

Carmen D'Avino, New York
